

Denise Bossert

Denise is a syndicated Catholic columnist. She travels throughout the U.S. speaking to parishes and conferences on a variety of topics. Ms. Bossert is an expert on Biblical sites in the Holy Land and their relevance to the Liturgical Calendar and Daily Readings at Mass.

Speaking Topics

- Conversion Story: preacher's daughter to Roman Catholic writer
- Journeying in the footsteps of Jesus Christ in the Holy Land
- Journeying through Lent (or Advent) with Mary
- Women of Salvation
- Pro-Life for Life (choosing life after rape)

Denise is a convert to the Catholic Church. She is the daughter of a Protestant minister. In 2005, she converted to Catholicism after reading books by Carmelite saints. Her syndicated column called Catholic by Grace has been published in 63 diocesan newspapers. She has also written for Catholic magazines and appeared on EWTN's Journey Home, Women of Grace and At Home with Jim and Joy. Her first book is entitled Gifts of the Visitation and explores the Blessed Mother's journey from Nazareth to Ein Kerem.

"This woman should speak in every parish."

Lenten parish mission attendee, Indiana, 2017

"Everybody loved her. We have only heard good things about her talk."

Lenten Day of Reflection, Archdiocese St. Louis, 2017

Gifts of the Visitation

"This is a little gem of a book..."-Elizabeth Scalia, author of Strange Gods

"...takes the reader by the hand, and invites them on a compelling prayerful journey..."-Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle, EWTN host and author of Rooted in Love

"...imaginatively chronicles Mary's joyful meeting with Elizabeth ... unwraps nine gifts that encourage would-be evangelizers to grow in their Catholic faith..."

-Pat Gohn, Author of Blessed, Beautiful, and Bodacious

denise.bossert@gmail.com
denisebossert.com